Electronic Notification Agreement

In addition to receiving the Net Exchange Client services mentioned above, to stop receiving paper account statements and/or trade confirmations or other documents as they may be made available (the "Documents"), you agree to accept and receive electronic notification that the Documents are available online for your retrieval (the "Service"). "You" means the account owner(s) and/or authorized user(s) of the account. "Authorized user" means a person that you have authorized with full access to your account and has been granted a user ID. By accepting electronic delivery of the Documents, you are agreeing to the electronic delivery of all notices, disclosures, and other information relating to your account that are communicated with or within the Documents.

The Documents will be available to you online via a service provided by Cambridge Investment Research, Inc. and Pershing L.L.C. on behalf of your registered investment advisor. You will be notified by electronic mail (e-mail) when these documents are available to be viewed online. The e-mail notification(s) will be sent to the e-mail address that you provided on this form. In the event of an e-mail notification failure as defined by Pershing, Pershing will terminate this arrangement and you will revert to receiving paper documents until such time that you re-enroll through the Service.

By accepting this Electronic Notification Agreement, you affirm that the client e-mail address provided above is a valid e-mail address, you have access to the Internet, and you are at least 18 years of age. You also affirm that you have installed Adobe Acrobat Reader version 4.0 or higher on your computer to view your Documents. You agree that electronic delivery of the Documents is deemed accepted, regardless of whether a particular document is accessed or viewed. You may print or save a copy of the Documents at any time. You may request a mailed copy of your Documents by calling your registered investment advisor.

Your consent to accept electronic delivery of the Documents is effective until revoked by Cambridge, Pershing, your registered investment advisor, or you. Cambridge may revoke such consent at any time. You may revoke your consent and resume receiving paper Documents by changing your delivery preferences online. You may also contact your registered investment advisor directly for assistance. You expressly agree and acknowledge that your use of the Service is at your sole risk. Neither Cambridge, Pershing nor their respective directors, officers, employees, agents, contractors, affiliates, information providers, or services warrant that the online service will be uninterrupted or error free. Neither Cambridge nor Pershing warrants the timeliness, sequence, accuracy, completeness, reliability, or content of any information with respect to accessing electronic information. The service provided is on an "as is", "as available" basis and without warranties including, without limitation, those of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose or non-infringement other than those warranties which are implied by and incapable of exclusion, restriction, or modification under the laws, rules and regulations applicable to this service. By signing this Electronic Notification Agreement, you agree to hold Cambridge, Pershing, and each of their directors, officers, employees, agents, contractors, affiliates, information providers, successors or assigns harmless from any liability, including but not limited to, any claims, judgments, expenses, liabilities or costs of defense or settlement (including attorney's fees) arising out of or related to delivering electronic copies of the Documents to you in accordance with the terms of this Electronic Notification Agreement.

You are responsible for maintaining confidentiality of your user ID and password, for restricting access to your computer, and you agree to accept responsibility for all activities that occur under your user ID or password. You are agreeing to abide by the terms and conditions as they may be amended from time to time; amended terms will be posted on the myedocumentsuite.com website. Your continued use of the site will constitute your acceptance of the then-current terms and conditions. The terms and conditions of this Electronic Notification Agreement set forth the entire understanding and agreement between us with respect to the subject matter hereof.

By signing this Electronic Notification Agreement, you acknowledge that you have carefully read, understand, and agree to these terms and conditions; represent and warrant that you are authorized to enter into this agreement; and indicate your informed and affirmative consent to the electronic delivery of the Documents, no longer receiving paper copies of the Documents, and transmission of an electronic notice to a designated e-mail address(es) as the only notice sent when the Documents become available.

We, the undersigned, give authority to grant online access to our above listed accounts to the recipient of this User ID and understand that if we have chosen to receive brokerage account statements and/or trade confirmations electronically, signing below represents that we have read and understand the Electronic Notification Agreement.
